The process for the selection of candidates to be recommended will include screening of application materials, examination, and interview.

1) Application Screening:

Applications will be accepted between:

3 July (Fri) and 3 August (Mon) 2026

Please note that applications that arrive after the due date will in principle not be accepted.

A notification letter, indicating whether or not they have been short listed, will be sent by RHEP Secretariat by the middle of August via mail.

2) Examination:

RHEP assesses candidates' English written proficiency with English test scores.

3) Interview:

Date: 22 August (Sat) and 29 August (Sat) 2026

Location: Online

(For details, see the admission ticket for examination that will be distributed to applicants who have passed the document screening.)

The interview date stated above is yet to be confirmed. For the exact date, please refer to the convocation letter and the admission ticket for examination.

The final results are scheduled to be available at the beginning of September via mail.

- Inquiries as to the result will not be accepted under any circumstances.
- The final decision as to the candidate who is to be recommended to KGU will be made by the selection committee, consisting of UNHCR and RHEP Alliance staff, individuals with educational backgrounds/NGO staff and affiliates from language schools. (TBC)
- Based on the discretion of the selection committee, regardless of the number of applicants, not all places may be filled.

5. Recommendation to KGU and selection by KGU

Information regarding the selection process by KGU will be provided to the selected candidate of RHEP at a later date. The final decision as to which candidate is successful is solely at KGU's discretion.

Accepted students will be asked to fulfill their commitment and responsibilities set by UNHCR as RHEP scholarship students. The students will be required:

- ① to submit progress reports to RHEP Secretariat twice a year;
- ② to regularly participate in follow-up meetings and interviews after graduating from the university; and
- ③ to undertake at least one RHEP project (e.g. participate in a seminar as a speaker) during the time of their studies.

*Details of the abovementioned-reports/assignments will be provided by RHEP Secretariat after students are accepted by the university.

6. Notice and Disclaimer

For the purposes of equity, UNHCR / RHEP Alliance and the selection committee will not respond to inquiries about the application screening process, the content of the examination, and matters relating directly to the result. Furthermore, as the RHEP selection is undertaken by UNHCR and RHEP Alliance, please do not contact Kwansei Gakuin University regarding the program and selection process. On the other hand, please make sure to contact professors at the university of your choice in advance, to confirm that you will be able to study the research theme of your choice.

For candidates admitted to a university located far from your current residence, you may need to move at your own cost from your current place of residence upon enrollment. In addition, depending on the academic year and desired school or faculty, the location of your campus may change. Please consult carefully with your family (especially if you are a minor) and/or employer when choosing a university and academic program before applying to this program.

UNHCR and RHEP Alliance will protect personal information in conformity with the relevant confidentiality policies. UNHCR and RHEP Alliance will only refer to the applicants' personal information when it is necessary for carrying out operations, including reviewing the program and its outcomes, and gathering statistical data for conducting publicity activities. Applicants' personal information will only be shared with partner universities as and when it is necessary, in order for candidates' recommendation to the relevant university.

*From 2025, the program is coordinated by UNHCR Representation in Japan and RHEP Alliance.
